The plan

September: Getting to know each others and breaking the ice. Students make Voki-presentations about themselves, their hobbies and interests.

(http://www.voki.com/site/create)

October: Logo competition. The partner schools design a logo for the project. The winner will be found by a vote.

November: My daily routine. Students are to present their daily routine. It can be done either as a presentation (text with photographs, drawings, etc) or even as a video (with captions). Make sure to add time to actions.

December: Handmade Christmas cards (one to each member school/group) & prsentations about Christmas traditions

January: My hometown. Students make presentations about their hometown (for example PowerPoint-presentations)

February: My school. Students present their schools. Perhaps even the school system in their countries.

March: My hero/ The person I admire. Students make presentations about their hero/ a person they admire.

April: The nature and and animals (fauna) in my country. Students make presentations where they introduce the nature and typical animals of their country.

May: These are the things my home country is famous for: design, music, art,

Conclusion

Le Parcours :

- Nous a permis de découvrir de nouvelles choses (les voyages, Etwinning).
- Nous a permis d'améliorer notre anglais, grâce à une heure en plus et des activités pratiques.
- Nous a permis d'avoir des points en plus pour le Brevet.
